THAW TELLS STORY OF HIS ESCAPE

HIS EVIDENCE WAS FOR PUR-POSE OF CONVINCING JURY HE WAS NOT INSANE.

Men Charged With Conspiracy in Assisting Him to Escape Were Locked Up After He Finished Testifying.

New York, March 11.—Harry Kendall Thaw went on the stand today and told the complete story of his escape from the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan.

A dual purpose, his attorney said, prompted him to do so. Primarily he desired to tell his story in such a manner as to convey to the jury which is trying him and his co-defendants on an indictment charging conspiracy an idea that he had recovered his reason. He wanted also to take all the blame for the escape.

He testified that the men the state alleges conspired with him were not actually conspirators but men he had employed to assist him out of the state after he himself had effected his escape. He said he paid them $6,000 for their services and that he gave Roger Thompson, who accompanied him to Canada, "a present of $1,000."

The witness declared he thought he had a legal right to flee from the hospital, as he believed himself sane and that had he remained there his reason ultimately would have been destroyed.

Thaw told his story after his attorneys had made many vain attempts to get into the record testimony of half a dozen alienists and more than a score of laymen before and since his escape who have had an opportunity to observe his actions. The presiding supreme court justice, however, refused to admit any more of this testimony than would show that Thaw had sufficient mental capacity to enter into a conspiracy.

The law of New York provides that an insane person may commit a crime if he has sufficient mental capacity to know that he is doing a criminal act and has an intention to commit it.

When the adjournment was taken this evening with Thaw still on the witness stand under cross-examination, he had four co-defendants instead of five. After the state had closed its case Michael O'Keefe, upon the motion of counsel, was discharged as no evidence had been adduced to connect him with the alleged crime.

Thaw testified later, however, he had five "employees."
Special Deputy Attorney General Kennedy, in charge of the prosecution, considered that Thaw had so involved his four remaining co-defendants that he requested the court to cancel their bail bonds and confine them in the Tombs prison until a verdict could be reached.

The court complied with the request. The defense will be completed tomorrow morning and the case should therefore be in the hands of the jury before night.

Thaw appeared exceedingly nervous when he first took the stand and began by answering questions in monosyllables. As the examination progressed, however, he began to talk more freely and turned from his attorneys to face the jury. On cross-examination Thaw showed some traces of impatience but each time became quickly apologetic. It was during this cross-examination that he allowed his voice to drop almost to a whisper.

VESSELS NOT TO BE MOLESTED

London, March 10.—8:15 p. m.—A dispatch from Rotterdam to Reuters' Telegram company says:

"Until particulars of the proposed naval measures of reprisal by Great Britain and France against Germany are made known the British government, according to an announcement today in Rotterdam has agreed to permit the vessels, which on the date of the publication of the reprisals had on board or were loading German goods, to proceed to their destination without being held up. Dutch vessels consequently are accepting goods which have been exported from Germany."

FRECKLES

February and March Worst Months for This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in February and March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely.

Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if othine fails.

Make your food more tempting with Cottolene

For making cakes, pies and pastry—for all shortening and frying—Cottolene is supreme.

Cottolene is an exact combination of the purest, richest, most carefully refined cottonseed oil and the choicest beef stearine obtained from selected, high grade leaf beef suet. Cottolene is itself one of the purest of pure foods.

Cottolene makes foods more digestible—more wholesome—makes them taste better. Use it for every kind of shortening and frying and for making cakes and pastries.

Cottolene

For a quarter of a century Cottolene has been growing steadily in favor. It is not offered as a substitute or as being "just as good" as other shortening and frying fats. It is an original product and better than anything else that you can use for shortening or frying. Insist on getting real Cottolene.

Cottolene is ready for use as you take it from the pail. It creams up beautifully and blends readily with the flour.

Use a third less of Cottolene than of any other shortening or frying fat. You can use it over and over for frying. Cottolene does not absorb tastes or odors.
Always heat Cottolene slowly.

Pails of various sizes, to serve your convenience. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

PITTSBURG HERE NEXT MONDAY

FIRST GAME WILL BE PLAYED AT WHITTINGTON PARK
WEDNESDAY.

BY H. W. LANIGAN,
Press Representative of the Arlington and Eastman Hotels.

Hot Springs has its first baseball game of the season next Wednesday afternoon. It will be between the first and second teams of the Pittsburgh Nationals and will be staged at Whittington park.

Business Manager John H. Dailey so wired Colonel Lyman T. Hay last night. Mr. Dailey's message came from Dawson Springs, Ky., where the Pirates are doing a week's work before coming on to the spa and taking possession of their spring home.

The Pittsburgh party will stop at the Hotel Eastman. Mr. Dailey, in his telegram to Colonel Hay, stated that the club would arrive in time for lunch on Monday. He made reservations for a party of 43. Manager Fred Clarke will be accompanied by his wife. She generally visits the spa with the Pirates every spring and has a host of friends and admirers among the regulars at the Eastman and Arlington.

President Dreyfuss will likewise be here with his players. He is the gentleman who put Hot Springs on the map as a training ground for the ball tossers, and that he was right when he picked out our town is proven by the fact that the Pittsburgh club's average for the past dozen years is heftier than that gained by any other big league club.

The rest of the troupe will include Honus Wagner, Al Wagner, the king's brother; Adams, Kautzner, Gibson, Viox, Carey, E. Collins, Bob Schlang, a young catcher recruited from the St.
Joseph (Western league) club and a brother of Connie Mack's crack receiver; Sterzer, a young pitcher off the same outfit; Lejeune, the Sioux City slugger; Baird, Leo Murphy, W.
J. Wagner, McQuillan, Cooper, Mc-Carthy, Leonard, Costello, a likely looking recruit from the New York State league; Al Bresnahan Mamoux, A. C. Vance, Darney, Altenburg, Harmon Hill, Bill Hinchman, Columbus, 1914 pilot; Gerber, Bob Harmon, Chie Frazer, coach and Fred Clarke's brother-in-law; Siglin, McAuley, Doc Johnston, formerly of the Naps, and Fritz Scheeren.

James McAfee, August Haber, H. C.
McGraw, D. J. Davies, E. F. Baizer, James J. Jerpe and Larry Doyle complete the party. Some are scribes and some are rooters.

United States, would the United States secure its strict observance?
It is asserted by them that Germany has violated so many compacts and conventions in this war that British statesmen are disinclined to trust her unassisted word.

Secondly, they urge that the two offenses specified in the American note—submarine warfare on merchant vessels and the mining of the high seas—are far from being the only or even the worst offenses which Germany has been guilty. The claim is set up that she has bombarded unfortified towns, dropped bombs on places inhabited solely by civilians, and sunk both British and neutral ships as if that were the ordinary legal way of disposing of them.

Great Britain, it is pointed out, has indulged in none of these practices and such mines as she has shewn compelled in self-defense to lay have been laid in strict accordance with The Hague conventions.

The policy of the Germans which arouses the most indignation among the directors of the British government is her continued alleged persecution of the Belgians, millions of whom it is declared "would be at this moment in a state of semi-starvation but for American generosity and assistance."

The view therefore held in the most authoritative quarter of Great Britain is that if there is to be any question of Germany's conforming to the rules of civilized warfare with respect to all points and not merely with respect to two of them which she has been accused of departing from, it must come up for discussion and that Great Britain could enter into no agreement on a subject which did not include a radical change in Germany's present proceedings in Belgium.

Finally, it is declared by the same authority that these being factors that mainly influence British official opinion, it may be inferred that the natural sympathy of the British government with the American suggestion, both on its merits and from its source of origin must to some extent be mitigated by other and wider considerations.

The friends of Mrs. C. F. J. Tate will be exceedingly sorry to learn that her mother's home at Lonoke was entirely destroyed by fire a few days ago. Mrs. Tate was visiting her mother, Mrs. L. W. Munro, at the time. All of the family relics were lost.
